Reviewed and Agreed by	The Directors' Board
Last Review Date	11 December 2024

The Trust and Academies therein have a responsibility to maintain its records and record keeping systems in line with statutory requirements. Records are defined as all those documents that facilitate the business carried out by the school and which are thereafter retained (for a set period) to provide evidence of its transactions or activities. These records may be created, received or maintained in hard copy or electronically. Records provide evidence for protecting the legal rights and interests of the school and provide evidence or demonstrating performance and accountability. When doing this, the Trust will take account of the following factors: -

- The most efficient and effective way of storing records and information;
- The confidential nature of the records and information stored;
- The security of the record systems used;
- Privacy and disclosure; and
- Their accessibility.

This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and is not intended to have contractual effect. It does, however, reflect the Trust's policy framework and current practice, the requirements of current legislation and best practice and guidance. It may be amended by the Trust from time to time and any changes will be notified to employees within one month of the date on which the change is intended to take effect. The Trust may also vary any parts of this procedure, including any time limits, as appropriate in any case.

Individual staff and employees must ensure that records for which they are responsible are accurate and are maintained and disposed of in accordance with the school's retention guidelines.

RESPONSIBILITY AND MONITORING

The CEO is responsible for monitoring the effectiveness of this policy and dealing with any queries on its interpretation in conjunction with the headteacher at each academy. The suitability and adequacy of this policy will be evaluated on an annual basis in liaison with the DPO, and any recommended improvements will be carried out as part of the policy review process.

DATA PROTECTION

This policy sets out how long data including employment-related and pupil data will normally be held by us and when that information will be confidentially destroyed in compliance with the terms of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UKGDPR), the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 2018. Data will be stored and processed to allow for the efficient operation of the Trust and the Academies therein. The Trust's Data Protection Policy outlines its duties and obligations under the UK GDPR not to retain data longer than for the purpose to which the data was originally collected.

As a result of the EU exit, completed 1 January 2021, data controllers and processors follow the UK GDPR, and the Data Protection Act 2018, where:

- As UK data controllers, they collect, store or process the personal data of individuals residing in the UK.
- As non-UK data controllers, they offer goods or services to, or monitor the behaviour of, UK residents.

Data controllers and processors follow the EU GDPR where:

- They collect, store or process the personal data of individuals residing in the EU.

THE STORAGE AND SECURITY OF DIGITAL DATA

(Please see Information Security Policy for extended details)

Back- up system: The school will ensure in liaison with the IC Technicians/Consultants that there are regular back-ups of all information held electronically to enable restoration of the data in the event of an environmental or data corruption incident.

The IT Technicians tests the integrity of the back- ups and restoration on a regular basis.

Personal information is not to be stored on the hard drive of any PC unless the device is running encryption software.

Password Control: The school will ensure that data is subject to a robust password protection regime. Password sharing is not encouraged and staff are required to lock their PC's when they are away from their desks to prevent unauthorised use.

THE STORAGE AND SECURITY OF HARD COPY DATA

Storage of Physical records: The Trust recommends that all physical records are stored in lockable filing cabinets drawers and storage areas. Not only is this to protect against unauthorised access but also from Fire and Water Damage. Clear Desk Policy; a clear desk policy is encouraged to avoid unauthorised access to sensitive or personal information.

DISCLOSURE/CONFIDENTIALITY

Staff are made aware of the importance of ensuring that personal information is only disclosed to people who are entitled to receive it and that consideration has been given to the UK General Data Protection Regulations. This is outlined in the Staff Code of Conduct Policy.

If the school receives a request for information from a third party, then the process outlined in the Third Party Requests for Information process should be followed, this is outlined in the Data Protection Policy.

DISPOSAL OF DATA AND DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS

Where disposal of information is outlined as secure disposal, this will be shredded and electronic information will be archived. If the record is in need of review prior to disposal then information will be checked for administrative value, a record kept and then destroyed.

Where records have been identified for destruction they should be disposed of in an appropriate way. Where information must be kept permanently this information is exempt from review procedures. All information must be reviewed before destruction to determine whether there are special factors that mean destruction should be delayed, such as potential litigation, complaints or grievances.

All paper records containing personal information, or sensitive policy information should be shredded before disposal using a cross cutting shredder where possible. All other paper records should be disposed of by an appropriate waste paper merchant. All electronic information will be deleted. When using external providers, records should be shredded on site and a certificate of destruction be issued. This also applies to destruction of hardware; the disposal company must provide a certificate of destruction. When performed by the ICT Technicians, a Certificate of Destruction should also be signed and dated.

Records and information that might be of relevance to the Independent inquiry into child sexual abuse will not be disposed of or destroyed.

Electronic copies of any information and files will also be destroyed in line with the retention periods.

- CDs/DVDs/Floppy Discs should be cut into pieces
- Hard discs should be dismantled and sanded.

- Description of data Format of data Method of Destruction
- Who the data was destroyed by.

ARCHIVING

Where records have been identified as being worthy of preservation over the longer term, arrangements should be made to transfer the records to the archives. A database of the records sent to the archives is maintained by the Business Manager at each academy. The appropriate staff member, when archiving documents should record in this list the following information: -

- File reference (or other unique identifier);
- File title/description;
- Number of files; and

TRANSFERRING INFORMATION TO OTHER MEDIA

Where lengthy retention periods have been allocated to records, members of staff may wish to consider converting paper records to other media such as digital media or virtual storage centres (such as cloud storage). The lifespan of the media and the ability to migrate data where necessary should always be considered. Advice should be sought from the IT Representative/Business Manager within the academy.

The ACAS code of practice on disciplinary and grievance procedures recommends that the employee should be told how long a disciplinary warning will remain current. However, this does not mean that the data itself should be destroyed at the end of the set period.

Any disciplinary proceedings data will be a record on an important event in the course of the employer's relationship with the employee. Should the same employee be accused on similar misconduct five years down the line, and then defend him or herself by saying 'I would never do something like that', reference to the earlier proceedings may show that the comment should not be given credence. Alternatively, if the employee were to be dismissed for some later offence then claim at tribunal that he or she had 'fifteen years of unblemished service' the record of the disciplinary proceedings would be effective evidence to counter this claim.
